All that memory loves most
Was once only a hope . . .
But all that hope, adored and cherished,
Has softened into remembrance . . .
We shall forever feel the past's strange spell—
Yet, we shall endlessly await what tomorrow may foretell . . .

. . . the years have passed swiftly, etching indelible imprints upon our memory . . . anxious expectations of the first day in B. H. S.; the thrill of an A in a hard subject; after school chats with teachers; the first football game; spring fever, which made everyone feel drowsy in classes; the first conduct mark which almost broke mom's and dad's hearts; Friday afternoon assemblies; the most important basketball game of the season; the organization of the Student Council; election of class officers; workers in the building and brick-layers scurrying to and fro; the annual Thanksgiving football game with Milton; Junior Prom; strenuous gym exercises; the crowd in the cafeteria; friendly halls full of the sound of laughter and lockerdoors shutting; the seriousness of the Christmas Assembly; the Braintree High School Song; the "49ers", the Senior Show; night of the school operetta; rehearsal for graduation; the Senior Reception; graduation night and the thrill of receiving a diploma; four happy years spent in B. H. S. . . .

MEMOIRS OF THE '49ERS

It was in September, 1945 that we were welcomed into the portals of Braintree High and little did we know then all that would take place in those four short years. Is there even one of the '49'ers who can't remember that thrilling football game with the Sophs that year?

The Sophomore year started with our feet firmly on the ground. It was the start of our real school life. For class officers we elected "Butch" Perrault, President; Bernie Piccini, Vice-President; "Bev" Nyberg, Treasurer; "Teenie" Anastos, Secretary. Mr. William Trainor and Miss Alice Daughraty were elected as our class sponsors. The first thing we had was the Sophomore Social which was a great success. We also can't forget our good representation in sports, both boys and girls.

In our Junior year, for the first time in the history of Braintree High School, a Student Council was organized. We re-elected the class officers of our Sophomore year: "Butch" Perrault, President; Bernie Piccini, Vice-President; "Bev" Nyberg, Treasurer; "Teenie" Anastos, Secretary. We got our class rings, sponsored the operetta "Mikado," and made plans for our Junior Prom which was a big success. At the end of the school year, most of us were just one step away from graduation.

In our Senior year we watched with mixed emotions the school being torn down. There was the sitting for class pictures, buying of yearbooks, and the election of the same officers of the two previous years. Then came rehearsals for the Senior Show "The '49ers." The girls' hockey team had a good year; the football team not too good, but they tried hard. In June we ordered caps and gowns, had our Senior Reception, and Senior Banquet. Then came Graduation Night when we waved good-bye to dear old Braintree High!

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

To whom it may concern: We, the graduates of the Class One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Forty-nine, of illustrious old Braintree High School, located in Norfolk County, Braintree, Massachusetts, being of sound mind and fully aware of what we are doing, do hereby make this our last will and testament:

Janet Ferguson leaves the office of Student Council secretary to whomever is capable of the job.

Frances Fowler leaves for Kresge's.

Bernie Piceini leaves so Bobby Brooks can take over the vice presidency.

Paul Eisenhauer leaves his boogie woogie playing to Barbara Wright.

Artie Moran leaves his love troubles to Bob Cushing.

Mary Comeau leaves her hockey stick and shin guards to Arlene Cahoon.

Jack Zampine leaves those long telephone conversations to Alice.

Nancy Giles leaves so that her sister may carry on.

Lefty Aitken leaves to become a master plumber (?)

Paul Trapp leaves so that Bob Haworth can carry on with the women.

Joan Jensen leaves her height to "Inches."

"Teenie" leaves her becoming personality to Merylle Rhodes.

Al Bregoli leaves his unusual ways for getting into trouble to Louis Raleigh.

Gloria Legg leaves to join Herbie.

Billy Baker leaves his giggle to Bunny LeVangie.

Alvan Webber leaves Miss Richards—(at last!)

"Sully" leaves her ability to get along with people to sweet little Pat.

Margie Christie leaves her glasses to Nancy Jane.

Jane Roberts leaves those BEAUTIFUL eyes to Rita Chandler.

Cal Moulton leaves her driving ability to Ginny Natoli.

Bill Bowie leaves his brain power to Bing Neal.

Florence Potter leaves her nice clothes to Jo-ann Green.

Kay Finnerty leaves her long wavy hair to Lizzie Codder.

Don Vitagliano leaves his seat in study hall to Joe Marinella.

"Dyna" leaves her seat in Smiley's to Barb Taylor.

Rita Morgan leaves her pep and vim to Nancy Whyte.

Eleanor Walker leaves her shyness to Judy Fielden.

Danny and Al leave the co-captainey to Stan and John.

Butch Perrault leaves—too bad girls!

Bev wills the class millions to Bob Goodale.

Alan Carlsen leaves his yellow shorts to Hugh.

Jimmy MacGregor leaves his vocal chords to his brother.

"Fitzy" leaves the pink ribbons he ties on his ear to Dick.

Midge, last of the Burpee trio, leaves.

Shelia Rateliff leaves her wad of bubble gum to Connie Pratt.

June Koffink leaves her ten long fingernails to Lois Thomas.

Bob Evans wills his trumpet to Phil Venti.

Jack Marshall leaves his late slips to Olive Holbrook.

Dick Hine wills his apron at Torrey's to Frank O'Rourke.

Shirley Lloyd leaves her mirror to Judy Thomas.

Billy Nelson leaves his managing ability to "Spike."

Sylvia Ripley leaves her ability to play tennis to Betty Gage. Her power to talk? Well, she needs that, I suppose.

Barb Osthagen wills her paint brush to Bob Barranger.

Celia Curran leaves her camera to Jeanne Johnson.

All Seniors leave their trials and tribulations to all underclassmen.

Be it known that, on this first day of December, One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Forty-eight, we hereby sign off.

SENIOR CLASS BRAINTREE HIGH SCHOOL

SENIOR

Well, here it is the year 1960, and we see Braintree's chief census taker, M. Christie, cruising around town. Let's go along with her and see what the graduates of 1949 are doing.

K. Aitken is the mayor. His school board includes, D. Spera, principal of grammar schools; his secretary, P. MacDonald. For school teachers he has elected: M. Burns, J. Fabiano, M. George, E. Migliorini, and J. Sullivan, the kindergarten teacher. In the public works department we have A. Marsico, street sweeper; P. Eisenhauer is the judge of traffic courts with J. Delaney as his police sergeant; they are trying to keep peace in B. Condon's pool hall and in J. Fitzsimmons' night club where B. Baker is the bouncer; E. Allen is the dishwasher and K. Bono the chief cook and bottle washer. While we're here, let's look over the chorus girls: A. Gogan, E. Hartford, and N. Giles.

Well, here's good old B. H. S., B. MacDougall is taking Miss Evans' place, E. Callahan is the physical education instructor, and we have a new chemistry teacher, J. McCarty. Her two star pupils, J. Brousseau and R. Brown keep blowing up the new addition so G. Cody, R. Fraser, D. Hughes, D. LaTulippe, J. Mattie, J. Meisenhelder, and J. Smith are still trying to rebuild it. The interior decorators, P. Correnti, T. Dennehy, G. Eosue and N. Hoyt, are patiently waiting. K. Evans, P. Leo, B. Nyberg, and B. Peckham, nurses in the new Braintree hospital, are all eyeing the new doctor, N. Mattson. His unfortunate patient is W. Nelson. Dr. Mattson is also the doctor for A. Moran's midget football team. His star players are A. Avitable, B. Leavitt, D. Vecchione, D. Vitagliano, and J. Zampine.

Right next to the hospital is A. Bregoli's home for aged women and on the other side E. Gurney and J. Holbrook's home for bachelors. They're complaining lately because J. Crowley's Hudson Bus makes too much noise. Parts are hard to get now, but maybe R. Evans and C. Gale's black market business could help him. But right now they're in the barbershop run by B. Morgan, M. Woelfel, and J. Young. (They should collaborate with T. Manter, noted hair stylist.)

Well, look here, Mortimer Peck has sold his establishment. It is now B. Piccini's Cut-Rate Undertaking Parlor, L. Saunders is the assistant mortician and A. Davies is the head dresser (lucky stiffs!). N. Morrison, D. Murray, M. Oliver, and J. Vines are digging graves for him.

M. Johnson now has the A. Leo baby food show with P. Frano on sound effects; F. Gibb, the star crooner; N. Raub, the announcer. They are competing with J. Flynn's disc jockey show.

Now that we are downtown, let's look into some of the new stores. We now have Sak's, Washington Street; N. Swasey is the credit manager; B. Olson the office boy; E. Robinson is running the elevator; J. Boucher is the cosmetic advisor; and N. Walder the head buyer. Further on we see J. Koffink, manager of Greene's Five and Dime; J. McNutt, running a successful haberdashery; M. Mundt, a cobbler; D. Cassidy, butcher; J. McLaughlin's Chinese laundry; and last but not least, G. Schultes, selling vitamin pills in Smiley's, where J. MacGregor is the soda jerk.

Oh, look over there, J. Golden's circus is in town; M. Tanner is a tightrope walker; E. Patenaude the weight lifter; R. Puliafico, stilt walker; H. Dyer the lion tamer; E. and P. Spellman, human cannonballs; and M. Mahar is still telling corny jokes. Watch out crossing the street, those driving instructorettes, D. MacDonald and C. Moulton, are at it again. They're dodging the cross-country experts, A. Carlsen, R. MacCormack, and F. White, who are racing a snail.

Sing Sing has moved to the middle of Braintree Dam, with A. Graziano the warden; R. Hine a prison guard, and R. Kidder serving a 99-year term because he was accused of a lock-picking crime that F. Potter actually committed.

Whose lovely mansion are we entering? Oh, so J. Langley married a multi-millionaire. J. Thomas is her competent secretary, and M. Shutt her maid.

S. Wentworth is now editor of the Braintree Observer and P. Trapp and B. Anderson are writing on Advice to the Lovelorn column for her. R. Quinlan is a specialist at pulling pimientos through olives and J. Leo is a pretzel bender. We also find E. Maslen working at the dental profession and K. Finnerty as his assistant.

The electoral campaigns are faring quite well with M. Fleming running them. A. Anastos is running for president and J. Ferguson for vice-president. R. Perrault is the United States delegate to the U.N. and W. Piner the senator from Alabama. B. Power is off on her own, organizing a dog catchers' union.

Some are not living in Braintree now: J. Wiseman has moved to Connecticut, C. Wilson to Florida, and J. Whitten and E. Walker are buyers in Paris with A. Webber as their interpreter.

Some are working at hardier jobs: C. McCarthy is a lumberjack; M. Reis, deep-sea diver; H. Yerkes, meat packer; S. Woodbury, blacksmith; R. L. Smith, clam-digger; and F. Regan, window washer in the Empire State Building, is not disturbed by the champion flag-pole sitter, E. Streeter. In the finer arts division: W. Coates and E. Brown are lecturers; S. Merritt is rewriting the dictionary; J. Robinson is rewriting Mr. Perry's math books for less intelligent mathematicians; T. Robinson is inventing shorter shorthand; B. Summers is up in dramatics as head of Braintree Theatrical College; J. Marshall is a piano tuner; R. Harkin, museum curator; W. Rushton, quiz kid; B. Vivona, sculptor; W. Mills is singing in a church choir; D. Sutherland, intricate calculist; D. Nelson and B. Osthagen are billboard artists; S. Blomgren is publishing J. Munroe's new book, "How Not to Drive;" and H. Shedd is just finishing her 400th pair of socks. J. Bissell is a taxidermist; J. Belyea and D. Birtwell are drilling for oil; K. Whitman is a glassblower; and L. Whittaker, D. Whitten, and D. Wilson are hunters (they'd rather hunt dear than deer!). G. Legg and B. Scholes are tied for the title of Mrs. America, but B. Crowninshield is too busy growing her hair to care about anything else. J. South is modeling E. Hutchinson's hat creations. Poor D. Richardi is always in the dark and A. Hannon is trying to help her by inventing the electric light. D. Gregor is a meteorologist; S. Ripley is inventing portable television; M. Pantano and J. Nelson are airline stewardesses for Eastern Air Lines where M. Csernak is the chief test pilot. P. Hall and M. Comeau are hockey instructors and M. Libertine has just won a swimming meet, thanks to the coaching of J. Raymond and J. Packard. S. Ratcliffe is boring the holes in Swiss cheese and L. Thompson is shredding shredded wheat.

R. Newell is a social worker; R. Morgan has a job with the FBI, tapping wires; E. Sullivan is a WAC; J. Roberts, a chimney sweep; and B. Reardon, J. Saia, and M. Ridley are traveling saleswomen with P. Sodano who is a Fuller Brush man.

R. McLellan, Eyes and Ears of the World, is now talking about R. Reilly, deep-sea fisher; G. Reardon, A-bomb scientist; J. Manganello, foreign correspondent; N. Ayer, isolationist, and J. LeVangie, roller-skating professional. M. Burpee is running a home for homeless kittens and W. Becker, a day nursery with H. Ricketson as his head baby sitter. The champion typist of the day is R. Murray, and R. Robbins and N. Routhier are earning their living removing pearls from oysters. G. Simpson is Admiral of the Fleet and C. Sakrison is swabbing the decks. R. Welch and R. Allison have banded together and are now the nation's leading manufacturers of spittoons. D. Powell is a dancing teacher; D. Skinner is running the D. B.; and C. Pedretti is managing a chicken farm with R. Peacock still spreading his feathers. C. Curran has started a recent gold rush and it is too much for R. Harold, miser, so he has hired F. Fowler to audit his books. A. Friedmann is writing a cookbook which she hopes will be of some use to J. Jensen and B. Hall who are running tourist cabins.

S. Lloyd is taking Walter Winchell's place. She's always talking about L. Kormann who is our new Ingrid Bergman and M. Lane, cartoonist for the Saturday Evening Post. Poor M. Alden is working her way through college. R. Noyes is manager of a girls' basketball team, R. Smith is a wrestler, A. Furtado is beating a tom-tom on the South Sea Islands, W. Bowie is a lighthouse keeper, and last but not least, C. Carr is a bathing beauty judge.

ACTIVITIES

WAMPATUCK

Constance F. Stecher, Sponsor

The Yearbook and the Wampatuck is the chief remembranee of your years at Braintree High. Under Miss Constanee Stecher's guidance, Sally Wentworth and Ada Harvey, the eo-editors, along with the staff, have done a wonderful job. They have puzzled and slaved along with Miss Steeher to make ends meet, and to get the publications out on time. A very important group that must not be forgotten are the business managers: William Becker, Eric Maslen, Charles Gale, Frederick Gibb, Charles Carr, Herbert Ricketson, William Bowie, and Winthrop Roberts.

B. H. S. LIBRARY STAFF

Ruth P. Strout, Director

Eighteen sophomore, junior, and senior girls signed up for library staff the second week of school. Under the capable guidance of Miss Ruth Strout, B. H. S. librarian, the new girls soon learned how to charge and diseharge books, send overdue notices, and many other duties of a librarian. The members of the staff were: Lorraine Marockino, Judy Fielden, Jane Merrill, Joan Langley, Barbara Benson, Anne Marie Hayes, Virginia Purdy, Nancy Giles, Josephine Saia, Elizabeth Cotter, Barbara Wright, Jayne Hubbard, Kathleen Bono, Anne Friedmann, Patricia Hall, Winifred Anderson, Elizabeth Damiano, Dorothy Mahar.

MIKADO

Mae L. Lindsay, Director

Gilbert and Sullivan's Mikado received a great ovation in April, 1948. The cast was headed by T. Anastos, W. Hayes, L. Ringquist, J. MacGregor, L. Mariani, L. Haworth, P. Trapp, P. Johnson, and L. Green. Ko-Ko is to marry Yum-Yum, but she loves Nanki-Poo. Since someone has to be executed in the town of Titipu, a death warrant is faked for Nanki-Poo but Katisha discovers the move. Ko-Ko makes love to Katisha, Nanki-Poo marries Yum-Yum, and all turns out well. The principals and the large supporting cast were appropriately costumed in the Oriental manner and the scenery was suggestive of Japan.

BAND

Arthur P. Hauck, Director

Come on along! Come on and hear! It's the best band in the land! Yes, Mr. Hauck's talented group has made a brilliant showing on the football field this year, headed by that cheerful majorette, Judy Leach. They have brightened assemblies with their presence, and altogether been a joy to their school. Outstanding activities on their schedule were the State Festival and Annual High School Festival in May. They've kept up spirit this year, so let's give three big cheers for a band that tops them all!

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

May L. Lindsay, Director

This year's Upper Class Glee Club, numbering 150 girls accompanied by Helen Wilson, were under the direction of Miss Mae L. Lindsay, instructor in vocal music at Braintree High School. The club participated in the Massachusetts State Festival and held their own annual Music Festival during National Music Week in May. At this concert the Glee Club sang one number alone and concluded their part of the program by joining with the combined Glee Clubs and Choir of 250 voices.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Mae L. Lindsay, Director

The Boys' Glee Club is the enthusiastic and famed boys' choral group of B. H. S. They started their eventful year singing on the Student Radio Club over station WORL and appeared every other month on this local station. With Richard Marcolini at the piano they sang for many of the local groups in Braintree. One of these groups, the Rotary Club, contributed $300 for the boys' uniforms. The high spots of their very busy year were the concerts given at the Cushing Veterans Hospital and the Naval Hospital in Chelsea, and the first prize from WORL.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Marion L. Billings
William E. Trainor
Sponsors

The Student Council started its second year as a school organization by electing Eric Maslen, president; Robert Brooks, vice-president; Janet Ferguson and Athena Anastos, secretaries; and Merylle Rhodes, treasurer. The Council lived up to its purpose of creating a better understanding between the student body and faculty by presenting assemblies, boosting school spirit, and supporting organizations and activities beneficial to the student. The most important work undertaken within the Council was the completion of its constitution. For furthering progress the Council started plans for introducing the National Honor Society.

CHOIR

Mae L. Lindsay, Director

The Braintree High School Girls' Choir, directed by Miss Mae Lindsay, and accompanied by Helen Wilson, concluded one of its most successful years. Since many of last year's members had graduated, fourteen new girls were chosen to replace them. During the Christmas season, many concerts were given in various churches around greater Boston and the South Shore, and, as usual, the girls sang at the rockery of the Blue Hill Cemetery. After Christmas additional concerts were given and a series of radio broadcasts were made over station WORL in Boston.

FOOTBALL

Arigo L. La Tanzi, Coach

The Braintree High gridsters, with their oft called "midget football", ran up victories over Cambridge Latin while only one touchdown kept them from overpowering Weymouth, Sanford, Me., North Quincy, Milton and Taunton, Attleboro and Norwood were a little too big for the battling Wamps to handle. Sophomores predominated in the green team with Art Moran, Don Vitaglianio, Dan Skinner, Don Leavitt, and John Zampine as the only seniors. Co-captain Danny Vecchione was the leading pacemaker and scorer. John Zampine, John Hart, and co-captain Al Avitable stayed in fighting almost without relief.

GIRLS' FIELD HOCKEY

Alice E. Daughraty, Coach

Come September and many fair lassies at B. H. S. turn their thoughts toward one thing—hockey! Approximately 75 girls turned out for practice and out of this number varsity and J.V. teams were chosen. Janet Munroe and Pat Hall, co-captains, passed their brilliant spirit on to their teammates. The girls had many a furious battle but, under the coaching of "Aunty Alice," emerged to a victorious season with seven wins, three defeats, and one tie. Games took place on Tuesdays and Thursdays and were often staged on muddy fields.

CROSS COUNTRY

Paul V. Toolin, Coach

Led by Coach Paul Toolin whose cry is forever, "The lowest score wins," the famous harriers of Braintree High School attained many sweeping victories in the 1948 season. Hugh Huleatt, the sensational new sophomore, and Alan Carlsen, the widely acclaimed senior captain, have smashed over the finish line close together. Almost invariably they were in first and second place in all of their meets, followed by their loyal teammates. Besides these single victories, Braintree's harriers won the South Shore and State Championship in Class B. "Of thee we are proud."

BASEBALL, 1948

Francis E. Mear, Coach

Five wins to seven defeats closed the 1948 baseball season. The first few games showed little promise of success but when Coach Mear presented his "Midget Second Base Combat," consisting of Stanley Mills and Bob Goodale, victory began to shine. Tommy Girouard and Jack Barranger filled out the rest of the bases with Joe Frazier as catcher. Outfielder positions were taken care of by William Brooks, Vic Damiano and Donald Bell. The pitchers were William Esson, Robert Lucas and William Lemieux. Robert Donovan capably handled the position of utility infielder.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Alice E. Daughraty, Coach

About the time of year when the snows of winter were beginning to pile up, the feminine hoopsters of B.H.S. gathered together to start another basketball season under the direction of their able coach, Miss Alice E. Daughraty. The varsity team, composed of senior girls, and the second team of juniors and sophomores, played against opponents from Abington, Randolph, Avon, North Easton, Stoughton, and Rockland. From December to early February the girls played with continued spirit and zeal, to make theirs' an interesting and suecessful season.

RIFLE CLUB

James L. Jordan, Sponsor

As September fades into October, the pops and bangs heard in Braintree are not those of hunters, but the Braintree High rifle club organizing for another season. Every Monday evening the team practices under the direction of its sponsor, Mr. Jordan, preparing for the shoulder-to-shoulder matches which they play with teams from Quincy and North Quincy, Old Colony De-Molay, and the Quincy seascouts. They also take part in postal matches held by the N.R.A. with competition from all parts of the country.

BASKETBALL

Francis E. Mear, Coach

The B.H.S. hoopsters, piloted by Coach Fran Mear, officially and successfully commenced their 1948-49 season by defeating the alumni in their first game. From Captain "Butch" Perrault, sole veteran of the previous season, Leo Saunders, Don Vitagliano, and Bob Lucas, Coach Mear obtained a combination of ability and height, while sophomore sensation Kenny Williams, juniors John Peterson and Bob Dagley, and seniors Danny Vecchione, Bernie Peccini, and "Mac" MacCormack rounded out the varsity lineup. The season was a difficult one with five home—and twelve away games.

TRACK, 1948

Paul V. Toolin, Coach

In the undefeated 1948 season, the track team of Braintree High School was a runner-up in Class C at the State Meet. With William Brooks, Robert Lauria, and Alan Carlsen leading, the rest of the team followed in beating the five big opposing teams of the season, while Carlsen set a new record for the mile run. With the theme, "Aim for the highest," Braintree beat Quincy, 47½ to 38½; North Quincy, 59 to 13; Rockland, 57⅔ to 28⅓; Thayer, 56 to 25; and Weymouth, 44 to 42.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL, 1948

Alice E. Daughraty, Coach

The second year of girls' softball at Braintree High with Betty Richardson as captain and Janice Joyce manager proved a big success. The Wamp-ettes won five games and lost one to Cohasset, where the game was a close one with a score of 11-12. The soaring scores showed that the Braintree girls had plenty of power in the hitting line. Louise Mariani and Betty Richardson were the most notable of the sluggers. The girls showed a big improvement over the previous year's achievements, due to more practice and experience.

BOYS' TENNIS, 1948

Alton C. Perry, Coach

The Braintree High Boys' Tennis Team closed its season with a record of two victories and eight defeats. Though the Wampville groups matches were not too successful, their opposing teams were superior, a fact which would bring any team down to defeat. Proudly wearing the colors of blue and white were Randy Walker, Robert Guibord, Russell Kidder, Arthur Griffiths, Robert Gillis, Richard Gillies, Robert Noyes, and Eddie Cahill. The opposing teams were Hingham, Quincy, Milton, Brockton, Thayer, and North Quincy. The two matches they won were both with North Quincy.

MAJORETTES & CHEERLEADERS

Arthur P. Hauck
Alice E. Daughraty
Directors

Resplendent in royal blue and white uniforms the lovely majorettes pranced down the football field and twirled their way into everyone's heart. Hats off to this wonderful group: Judy Leach (Head), Carol Peterson, Virginia Purdy, Ellen Anderson, Anna Zahn, and Ann Oliver. The cute, peppy cheerleaders inspired school spirit on the football field, basketball courts, and in assemblies. These girls really put their hearts and souls into their work: Athena Anastos (Head), Joan Thomas, Kay Finnerty, Marjorie Stevens, Merylle-Lee Rhodes, Virginia Natoli, Connie Pratt, Nancy Allen, and Alice Sweezey.

WAMPVILLE FLASH

Constance F. Stecher, Sponsor

When the good citizens of Braintree picked up their weekly Braintree Observors during the past year, the excellent reporting on the "doin's" at Braintree High found on the page entitled Wampville Flash was the work of the English "31" students. As a part of their journalism course these students "scouted up" school news and wrote many fine editorials, news stories, and sports articles. Under the guidance of their instructor and sponsor, Constance F. Stecher, the staff of the Wampville Flash has done a commendable job of reporting our news.

Ruth P. Strout, Sponsor

The Junior Red Cross was newly organized this year under the leadership of Miss Ruth Strout, librarian. Melryle Rhodes and Janet Peckham, members of the organization, were B. H. S. representatives to the Junior Red Cross Council whose headquarters are in Boston. Marion Horton, the on'y other officer of the group, was secretary. Other members were girls chosen from every home-room in the upper classes. Many comic books, playing cards and pinochle cards were collected for hospitalized veterans, and the girls met each month to make holiday party favors.

ORCHESTRA

Arthur P. Hauck, Director

With a lot of "fortissimo," a great "bravissimo" is due the Braintree High School orchestra for their work during the past year in the field of music. Under the direction of Arthur P. Hauck the group stressed, in their many entertainment programs, semi-classical music and compositions from the ever-popular musical shows. The orchestra also took part in the two main musical events of the year—the State Music Festival and our own spring concert. Featured by Mr. Hauck in many of the programs was the excellent string section.

THE '49ERS

Judy Robinson, Director

This year's Senior Show had an unusually entertaining plot, for it was a comical reproduction of the actua writing of the senior show. The '49ers was presented in two acts, the first taking place in the Gay Nineties, and the second brought up to date and situated here in our own Braintree High. Students were auditioned for main parts by director Judy Robinson, and rehearsals got under way after the Christmas vacation. The committees wish to thank the Senior Class for their full co-operation in making the show a success.

GIRLS' TENNIS

Alice E. Daughraty, Coach

With Betty Richardson as captain and Miss Alice E. Daughraty as coach, the girls' tennis team ended their 1948 season with a 4-0 win over Needham. The total score at the end of the season was five victories and three defeats. The hardswinging lassies were first singles, Betty Richardson; second singles, Mary Cavanagh; third singles, Louise Mariani; first doubles, Janet Monroe and Carolyn Moulton; second doubles, Sylvia Ripley and Judy Robinson. The teams that trounced the Wamps were Hingham and Norwood. Norwood won twice and Hingham once, after an earlier defeat.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Mildred R. Richards, Sponsor

Braintree High School has long needed an organization wherein the students who either had completed their study of French, or were taking French, could have an opportunity of speaking the language. Such an organization, newly formed this year, was Le Cercle Francais. The activity at the meetings, held twice monthly and conducted entirely in French, consisted of French songs, plays and other forms of entertainment which gave the members of the club wonderful practice in speaking and hearing French. The group had invaluable aid from Miss Mildred Richards, faculty sponsor of the club.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Barbara Hazel, Sponsor

When the idea of a dramatic club at B.H.S. was first proposed last year, it was met with welcome by the more dramatically minded students. The club, after it was finally established, contained about twenty-five members who elected as their officers Barbara Summers, president; Dorothy Nelson secretary; and Barbara Blake, treasurer. Such activities as attending professional plays in Boston, producing their own plays with the members having complete supervision over the productions, and forming a choral speaking choir were included by the club during its first year

MANAGERS AND COACHES

Jeanne Johnson

To anyone familiar with sports at Braintree High, the work done by the coaches and faculty managers is quite evident. Greetings to James Jordan, coach of rifle team; Paul Toolin, assisted by David Ward and William Trainor, cross country and track; Francis Mear, varsity basketball and baseball; Arigo LaTanzi, varsity football and junior varsity basketball; John Crowell and Harrison Jordan, freshman football; Albert Doucette and George Boothby, assistant coaches of varsity football; Alton Perry, tennis; Alice Daughraty, girls' tennis, hockey, softball, and basketball; and William Foley and Edward Oakman, faculty managers.

In the Long Run . . . . . .

You and your friends will prize the portrait that looks like you—your truest self, free from stage effects and little conceits.

It is in this "long run" photography that PURDY success has been won.

Portraiture by the camera that one cannot laugh at or cry over in latter years.

For present pleasure and future pride protect your photographic self by having PURDY make the portraits.
